RE: United States v. Conroy Edwards
Dkt. No.: 08-74-01
Request for Modification of Conditions

Dear Judge Greenaway:

On July 24, 2008, the above-referenced was sentenced by Your Honor to three years probation. Edwards entered a guilty plea to Conspiracy to Engage in the Business of Dealing in Firearms without a License. A $100 special assessment was imposed and Edwards was ordered to abide by the following special conditions: six months home confinement and DNA collection.

Edwards maintained suitable employment between the time he commenced supervision and January 30, 2009, when he was laid-off from the position. Since then, Edwards has failed to secure or maintain suitable employment, despite several directives to do so. He has not been excused by the probation officer, for any legitimate reason, from participating in employment, training or schooling. On March 9, 2010, the offender met with the undersigned officer and was presented with a Probation 49 form, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Supervised Release, to include his participation in community service work. As evidenced by the executed waiver enclosed, Edwards has agreed with this modification. Given the aforementioned, we respectfully request that Edwards' conditions be modified to include community service work. Edwards' participation in community service activities will keep him productively occupied while benefitting the community, and may broaden Edwards' network of potential employers.

Unless Your Honor considers otherwise, we ask that you review the attached Probation Form 12B, Request for Modifying the Conditions or Term of Supervision, authorizing the modification. We will make ourselves readily available should Your Honor wish to discuss this matter, so please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned probation officer at (973) 645-4701.

Honorable Joseph A. Greenaway, Jr.
